

Sports

Marion wins Logansport Invitational in tennis

Published: Sunday, August 31, 2008 1:17 AM EDT

Print Page

The Marion boys' tennis team went 3-0 to win Saturday's Logansport Invitational title, beating North Judson (5-0), Maconaquah (4-1) and Lewis Cass (3-2).

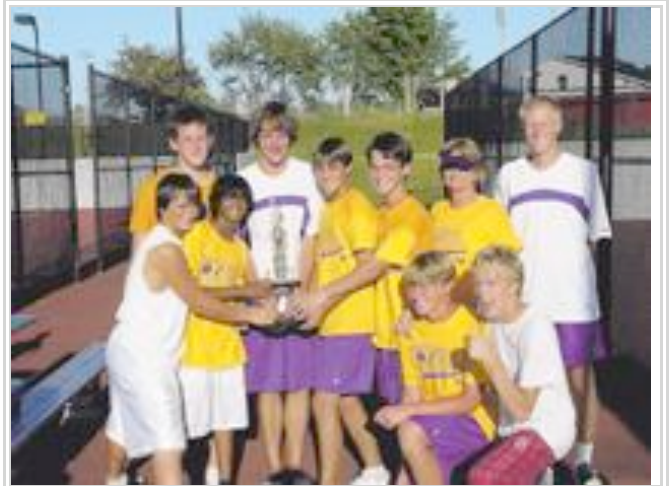

Against North Judson, Brandon Dubuque earned a 6-0, 6-0 victory at No. 1 singles, with Alex Hornett winning at No. 2 singles 6-1, 6-1 and Nick Fauser winning at No. 3 singles 6-0, 6-0.

In doubles, the team of Zac Lyons and Andrew Schoer earned a 6-0, 6-0 win. Kolby O'Banion and Advith Srikanth won by forfeit.

Dubuque, Hornett and Fauser were winners in singles play against Maconaquah. Lyons and Schoer also won in doubles action.

In the tourney championship, the Giants won all three singles matches to clinch the title, with Dubuque (6-0, 6-3), Hornett (6-3, 6-2) and Fauser (6-1, 6-3) all earning wins.

Marion is 7-0 and hosts Peru at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The Marion boys' tennis team

Copyright © 2008 - Chronicle-Tribune

[\[x\] Close Window](#)